My Life Without You 27/12/2010 11:12 Edit | Delete

This is where you can say what you would have said face-to-face, if circumstances had been different; what things trigger your memories of them? How you wondered how they were, if they were happy, what they were doing and if they were also wondering the same things about you?

All entries are timed and dated, so the recipient can view the relationship in absence over it's full duration. Anyone could say "I thought of you often.....", this actually proves it!
